

Credit Risk

Credit Risk remained MI's core risk especially due to the prevailing economic turbulence in the country. Credit risk arises due to failure of customer or counterparty to honor its financial or contractual obligations to the Company. It results in the loss of the principal amount and interest with adverse implications on profits due to the impairment provisions or write-offs of non-performing facilities.

